

AgingServicesNOW 2010

Dear Aging Services of Georgia Leadership –

We are excited to kick off a new program to connect you with current information and tools to use NOW as you and your organization strive to maintain excellence!

AgingServicesNOW is designed as a shared learning experience for members to engage together to review and share information other members. This year, small groups will choose books of their interest, read through them, and share significant aspects of the materials with colleagues via webinars and white papers. NOTE: The Georgia Institute on Aging will provide the books for you.
